

Eastern European Development Officer – full time

Salary circa 12,000 Euros per year

A new organisation has been set up to build on the good work of the National Association of Disabled Supporters (www.nads.org.uk) in England and Wales across Europe, with the help of a funding award from UEFA. This organisation is CAFE – Centre for Access to Football in Europe (www.cafefootball.eu).

CAFE is seeking a dynamic and self motivated Development Officer for Eastern Europe. The successful candidate will report directly to the CAFE Managing Director and work closely with the CAFE Administration Manager.

This full time role will be self-employed and home based with the successful candidate living within Eastern Europe. The candidate must have access to a computer and communications and must be computer literate. An understanding of supporters' networks will be important and outline knowledge of pan-disability access requirements for disabled supporters at sports stadia will be an advantage.

Key responsibilities for the Eastern European region include:

- identifying and building a network of local and regional disabled supporters;
- sharing all CAFE disability and access information;
- reporting back key issues to CAFE operational staff;
- promoting good practice and gathering access information for disabled supporters who will visit EURO 2012;
- helping to produce support literature and providing summary reports of all territory activities & projects.

This role includes foreign travel and the successful candidate must be fluent in English (verbal and written) and able to speak (and write) Polish and Ukrainian.

Please send your CV (with current/ last salary) and a brief covering letter (up to 600 words) explaining why you should be appointed to the position of Eastern European Development Officer to info@cafefootball.eu before midnight on 14th February 2010. Interviews will take place in early March with location to be confirmed.

CAFE is an equal opportunities employer and proactively seeks applications from disabled people.

'A Place for Every Football Fan'